PHILADELPHIA,
THURSDAY EVENING, JANUARY 23.

Juſtum et tenacem propoſiti virum,
Non civium ardor prava jubentium,
Non vultus inſtanti tyranni,
Mente quatit ſolida.

The final downfall of the Regicidal Republic of France, that event which all men of ſenſe felt to be neceſſary and ſaw to be inevitable, hath juſt been compaſſed in the moſt complete and ſatisfactory manner, by agents the moſt deſirable, by means the moſt effectual, and in a manner the moſt inſtructive and exemplary. The hour is arrived, when thoſe men, who relying on the inculcations of plain ſenſe and natural reaſon, looked up to with certitude and patiently would have prepared for this event, may exultingly reproach the diſciples of doubt, the infatuated peace-makers, and the dreaming viſionaries of probability, with all thoſe diſaſters which a want of faith has incurred. But the day of triumph is not a fit ſeaſon for reproach; and thoſe weak and miſerable men may be properly left to deplore in ſilent deſpair their obduracy to thoſe admonitions which would have retrieved the errors they had perpetrated.

With the return of its lawful and only natural government to France, all thoſe diſtempered and incoherent phantaſms of liberty, equality, and perfectibility, univerſal republicaniſm, and univerſal domination, diſappear, like the retiring miſts of a morning in Spring before the orient ſun. The order and the happineſs of the Univerſe again ſubſiſt in their accuſtomed admirable harmony, and innovators and their innovations vaniſh into the ſhadowy chaos whence they emerged to curſe and ſcourge mankind.

By the ſhip Farmer, Gibſon, from St. Sebaſtian's, we have received a large file of French papers; but that ſhip having had a very long paſſage, they are all of dates prior to the downfal of the Republican Government.

The Legiſlature of Pennſylvania have decreed that the late General Miffin be buried at the expenſe of the Commonwealth, and that funeral honors be paid to his remains.

A poor, ignorant, beaſtly German, of the name of Meyer, the printer of a Republican Gazette in York County, aſſerts that a meeting has been held there, for the purpoſe of denouncing againſt me a number of delicate Democratic anathemas. A correſpondent at York has politely tranſmitted this ribaldry to me, aſſuring me at the ſame time, that the meeting pretended to have taken place, was never heard of by any reſpectable perſon in the county. I thank this gentleman for his politeneſs; but he would have given himſelf no trouble on the occaſion, had he known the ineffable contempt in which I hold the ſovereign people of York county, or any other county. If the whole profanum vulgus, the whole ſwiniſh multitude of both the eaſt and weſt ridings, had excommunicated me, by bell, book and candle, it would have gratified me more than any other act they have in their power to perform. J. W. F.

There has been much talk of late reſpecting a defection of the ſubſcribers to the Aurora, ſaid to have been occaſioned by ſome teſtimonials of diſreſpect exhibited by the people who manage that paper, towards the memory of the late General Waſhington. A more farcical attempt to retrieve character from odium, has not fallen under our obſervation. The body of ſubſcribers to the Aurora conſiſts either of men who take the paper from a pernicious curioſity, and for a certain amuſement which they derive from the variety, quantity and malignity of its abuſe, or of ſworn and covenanted republicans to whoſe corrupt hearts its contents are congenial. To their ſhame be it ſpoken, we have reaſon to believe the former the more numerous claſs.

Now, it is not very probable, nay, from the nature of the caſe, it is very improbable, that the firſt of theſe claſſes could be incited to forego their amuſement on ſuch an account; and, as to the laſt, we well know that they have ſtood many ſeverer teſts of their fidelity to the cauſe of plunder and murder than any to which they have been recently ſubjected. It is a laughable trick,—the report has, to our knowledge been raiſed by the men themſelves,—and its object is, to ſeize on pretenſions to ſenſibility and decency of character, which exiſt not in them.

PRACTICAL DEMOCRACY.

"See (ſays a wolf, whoſe wiles have poſſeſſed him of a lamb, which he preſſes in the ſtruggle of death,) ſee, how ardently I have deſired to be with you; with what glowing attachment my boſom is warmed! See (making an inciſion in its throat) how ſweet, how balmy are my kiſſes. See (tearing open its breaſt) how I break the ſhackles which have bound you, and bleſs you with the ſun beams of light and intelligence. See (as he bends to drink dry the fountain of its life) what delightful liberty I bring you. Crown me with laurels! bear me about in triumph."

Mr. FENNO,

I OBSERVE in one of the late New York papers, that the editor of the court kalendar declares, that he "does ſtill perſiſt in aſſerting that the year 1800 is the firſt of the 19th century; and to believe the contrary is to betray a degree of ignorance excuſable in no one but a Philadelphian."

Since theſe things are ſo, I would ſuggeſt to the editor the expediency of turning to the 312th page of the firſt volume of Hume's hiſtory of England, and blotting out this ſentence, in which, ſpeaking of the reduction of Jeruſalem by the chriſtians, in the year 1100, he ſays, "This great event happened on the fifth of July, in the laſt year of the eleventh century." I preſume the gentleman will take ſome effectual meaſures to prevent ſuch a palpable abſurdity from being handed down to poſterity by a BRITISH author, heretofore, of ſome reputation. Otherwiſe Hume muſt be indelibly ſtigmatized with the imputation of a "degree of IGNORANCE excuſable in no one but A Philadelphian."

Extract of a letter from New York, dated January 21.

"The ſloop Lucky, Franklin, of Philadelphia, has juſt arrived from St. Sebaſtians. Capt. F. informs that about the 30th of October, the ſhip Woodrop Sims, Hodgdon, of Philadelphia, was captured by the French privateer Heureux, mounting 22 French 12's and 230 men, after a very gallant and well fought action, which continued from half paſt 10, A. M. till 2 P. M. the greateſt part of the time nearly board and board.

"At 11, A. M. ſeveral of the Woodrop's guns were diſmounted, but thro' the bravery of her crew, they were remounted, and were obliged to cut away the after trucks to prevent a ſimilar accident. The 2d lieutenant and 2 men were killed, and 3 wounded on board the Woodrop Sims. The French had 2 killed, and 4 or 5 wounded."

HALIFAX, (N. C.) Dec. 19.

Extract of a letter from Raleigh, dated December 19.

"Our legiſlature is truly federal, and evince it from their appointments. The Jacobins "had not the effrontery" to offer a democratic candidate for Governor, and all thoſe they have offered for militia officers have failed to ſucceed. You as a Caroliniaan cannot but feel an intereſt in every thing that concerns your native ſtate. Heretofore it has not been juſtly eſtimated, becauſe not properly known, perhaps thro' motives of rivalſhip in the neighbouring ſtates to keep its importance out of ſight as long as poſſible.

The two Carolinas will in future, I hope, underſtand each other, and unite their influence and efforts to fruſtrate that ſpirit of domination, which Virginia ſeems ſo anxious to extend. Reflecting men have ſeen its progreſs for many years; but it is only lately that it has become obvious to all—It is in other words, a ſpirit of rivalſhip and inſubordination, totally incompatible with the nature of our government, and of the rights, intereſts and union of the ſtates which compoſe it—The patriotiſm and independence of our new Governor, with other reſpectable appointments, are ſufficient pledges that their machinations in every ſhape, whether open or inſidious, will be ſuitably reſiſted."

NEWARK, January 21.

The cauſe of John Burnet, vs. Daniel Dodge, ſurviving partner of the firm of Aaron Pennington and Daniel Dodge, late Proprietors of The Centinel of Freedom, charged with LIBELLING the plaintiff, was brought on before the county court ſitting in this town, at 11 o'clock, A. M. on Thurſday laſt, and continued till half paſt 11 P. M. when the jury retired, and after being out till 5 next morning, returned with a verdict of One Hundred Dollars.

The Plaintiff in this caſe laid his damages at 1500 Dollars.

Black Swamp (Beaufort District) November 5, 1799.

Meſſrs. FRENEAU AND PAINE,
Gentlemen,

I THINK the following melancholy end of an unknown, well-bred lady, is worth inſerting in your papers, for the information of her unfortunate parents, huſband or friends.

There came a lady in a carriage (but not her own) to Black-ſwamp, to the houſe of Mr. William Lawton, far advanced in pregnancy, and was delivered the ſame night. In a week or two after, the child died, and ſhe removed to a near neighbour of Mr. Lawton, where ſhe was taken very ill, with a fever & ague, and there died on the firſt day of this month. She was handſome and genteel, very polite, and ſaid ſhe had a great education; that her father was a wealthy gentleman; that ſhe had married againſt the conſent of her parents, to a merchant, who ſince had broke, and had failed ſince in a ſhip as mate; but ſhe never mentioned, either the ſhip's name, or whereunto bound. She called herſelf Lucy Gratton, and ſaid that her father lived near Georgetown. She had a great quantity of very good cloathing; and it is ſaid, ſhe had, and has left a ſum of money. She ſaid ſhe wanted to go to Auguſta; but, there is no certainty from whence ſhe came, nor whether ſhe told her real name.

Pleaſe to inſert the above in your papers for humanity ſake, that her friends may known of the melancholy event; and oblige, gentlemen, Yours, &c.

CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, January 21.

The houſe, on motion of Mr. Bayard, again reſolved itſelf into a committee of the whole on the bill to eſtabliſh an uniform ſyſtem of Banktuptcy throughout the United States, Mr. Morris in the chair, when further amendments were made thereto, and the committee ordered to report their agreement to the bill as amendment.

The houſe having taken the amendments into conſideration,

Mr. Kitchell moved to recommit the bill for the purpoſe of amending part of the tenth ſection, which provides that the aſſignees may, within three months after the knowledge of a fraudulent ſale of property by the Bankrupt, upon refunding the conſideration money given by the purchaſer therefor, be entitled to ſuch property for the uſe of the creditors. The queſtion was put and negatived.

Meſſrs. Macon, Gallatin and Nicholas then oppoſed this part of the ſection; and Meſſrs. Bayard, Harper, Otis and Marſhall, ſpoke in favor of it—the ſection was finally agreed to, 60 members riſing in the affirmative.

Upon the queſtion ſhall this bill be engroſſed for a third reading, there were Ayes 44, Noes 44; the Speaker declaring himſelf in the affirmative, it was ordered to be read a third time on Monday next.

On motion of Mr. Bayard, a call of the houſe was ordered to take place at two o'clock that day; 54 members riſing in the affirmative.

A meſſage was received from the Senate, by Mr. Otis their Secretary, informing the houſe that the Senate had paſſed "an act for the relief of the legal repreſentatives of Nathaniel Lapſley, deceaſed," to which they requeſt their concurrence. The ſaid bill was read a firſt and ſecond time, and referred to the committee of claims.

Mr. Champlin preſented a petition of the corporation of Rhode Iſland College, praying indemnification for damages ſuſtained by that edifice during the revolutionary war. Referred to the committee of claims.

Mr. Harper ſaid, it would be recollected that the preſent law offering encouragement to artiſts for ingenious inventions, provided, that it ſhould not extend to foreigners; and that as the naturalization law fixed the period of reſidence at fourteen years, previous to being able to obtain the benefit of its proviſions, it might operate injurioufly, and prevent the migration of many valuable perſons of this deſcription, to this country; he therefore laid a reſolution on the table to amend the law ſo as to entitle foreigners to the benefits thereby extended to citizens of the United States.

Mr. Macon called up for conſideration the reſolution which he ſome days ſince laid on the table, for the repeal of the ſecond ſection of the ſedition law—and upon the queſtion will the houſe now take the reſolution into conſideration, it paſſed in the negative.

Mr. M. then gave notice, that he would call it up to-morrow, and every day after until it was diſpoſed of.

Mr. Otis, purſuant to order, reported a bill for the diſcharge of Robert Sturgeon, from impriſonment, which was read a firſt and ſecond time, and committed to a committee of the whole houſe to-morrow.

Adjourned.

WEDNESDAY, JAN. 22.

The Houſe went into committee of the whole on the bill to ſuſpend in part, an act intituled, An act to augment the army of the United States, and for other purpoſes, when it was read in the words following, to wit:

Be it enacted, &c. That all further enliſtments under an act intituled "An act to augment the army of the United States, and for other purpoſes," ſhall be ſuſpended until the further order of Congreſs; unleſs in the receſs of Congreſs war ſhall break out between the United States and any foreign European power, or imminent danger of invaſion of their territory by [any ſuch power] ſhall, in the opinion of the Preſident of the United States be diſcovered to exiſt.

Mr. Gallatin moved to amend the bill by inſerting in the ſixth line, after the word "Congreſs," the following—"and during the continuance of the exiſting differences between the United States and the French Republic."

The queſtion on the amendment was put and carried—Ayes 45; noes 43.

Mr. Otis then moved to amend the bill by ſtriking out the words in italic in the ſeventh and eighth lines, and inſerting "The French Republic," and to ſtrike out the words within crotchets in the ninth line, and inſert, "The ſaid Republic," which was agreed to.

Mr. Randolph propoſed to add the following new ſection to the bill:

"Be it further enacted, That the men now enliſted under the ſaid act, ſhall be formed into as many regiments as they are ſufficient to complete, to be officered at the diſcretion of the Preſident of the United States, out of the officers of the ſaid regiments; and that the ſupernumerary officers, together with ſuch officers of the general ſtaff, as in his opinion, will not be neceſſary for the diſcipline of the ſaid regiments, ſo to be formed, as aforeſaid, ſhall be diſcharged, and be entitled to receive, beſides the allowance directed by law to be paid at their diſcharge, each one month's pay."

Meſſrs. Rutledge, Platt, Hartley, Cooper, Otis, Harper, Bayard, Marſhall and Smith, ſpoke againſt it—and Meſſrs. Macon, Claiborne, Nicholas, Gallatin, Randolph, Jones and Smilie, in favor of it.

The queſtion was at length put and negatived, ayes 38, noes 56.

Mr. Nicholas ſaid, there was a proviſion in the law relative to the military eſtabliſhment, which prevented any non-commiſſioned officer or private from being arreſted for any debt or contract—and as it had been abuſed, by perſons entering the army, who were deeply involved, which he could never conceive to have been the intention of the Legiſlature, he moved to add another ſection to this bill, confining the exemption to debts or contracts ſubſequent to enliſtment.

Mr. Speaker ſaid, if abuſes had been committed, and there was a neceſſity for Legiſlative aid, it ought certainly to be given, but as it was irrelevant to the ſubject under conſideration, it could not be in order; in which opinion the chairman of the committee coincided.

Mr. Nicholas replied, that the principle advanced by the Speaker was a correct one, but had not always been adhered to, and he believed it would be found an arduous taſk to confine a committee to the very letter of their inſtructions.

The committee then roſe, and reported their agreement to the bill as amended.

Upon the queſtion will the Houſe now take the report of the committee of the whole into conſideration,

Mr. Platt moved that it be poſtponed until the firſt Monday in March next.

An adjournment being immediately called for, no queſtion was taken.

Adjourned.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE time being fixed on, when the MILITARY LAND (commonly called Knox's) WARRANTS, granted to the United States' army, are to be registered and located, — the subscribers have explored that tract of land on which those warrants are to be laid; with a view, and for the purpose of offering their services as locaters.

We take the liberty of suggesting, "that we are at least as well acquainted with the situation, quality of the soil, &c. of the different townships in the aforesaid tract, as any other person:" this will, perhaps, appear more clearly, by observing, that WILLIAM C. SCHENK assisted in running the Indian boundary line; at which time he considerably traversed that tract; he also assisted in surveying and laying it off into townships, and at other times ranged over it, to gain information. But to obtain a more complete and accurate knowledge, we have lately spent between two and three months, with several assistants, in particularly examining the different townships and quarter townships; by which means we have acquired an accurate knowledge of the whole district.—We now offer our services to the public, as Locaters, with assurances that we will locate every persons warrants intrusted to us to the best advantage, agreeably to their rights of location, which is to be determined according to law. For our services we demand the one equal tenth part, either in lands or warrants, when we locate a full tract, of four thousand acres or more, for one person or firm; the land to be taken in a square, at a corner of the tract; which corner is to be equitably determined before the time of location.—The one equal sixth part, in cash or warrants, when we connect and locate any amount less than four thousand acres. We will be in Philadelphia from December next, until after the time of location, to transact this business. Any person wishing to satisfy himself farther, will please to call on us, by letter, (postage paid) or otherwise; when due attention will be paid, and such vouchers may be seen as we have to offer, which we hope will be satisfactory.

UPWARDS OF

Eighteen Thousand Persons

Of all ages, within nine months past, have found relief from

HAMILTON'S

Worm destroying Lozenges,

In various complaints arising from worms and from foulness or obstructions in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar title so commonly complained of as operating with a degree of violence, sufficient, not only to kill worms, but sometimes to endanger the patient's life; on the contrary, a peculiar excellence of this remedy is, its being suited to every age and constitution, contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent, and is so mild in its operation, that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady, or the tenderest infant of a week old, should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping, cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders.

RECENT CURES

Selected from several hundreds, the authenticity of which, any person may ascertain either by letter or personal application—not being performed in Europe, nobody knows where—but at home.

AFFIDAVIT,

MICHAEL DUFFY, residing at No. 47 Wilkes street, Fell's point, in the city of Baltimore, voluntarily maketh oath, that the following statement is just and true.

In the beginning of May last, my three children, a boy of seven, and two girls, the one five and the other three years of age, were taken very ill, nearly at the same time, of a common fever, as I then supposed; but was soon convinced the disorder was caused by worms—they were frequently troubled with convulsion fits, and violent startings in their sleep, and with almost continual vomiting and purging, particularly the youngest. I made immediate application to a physician of the first reputation, and his medicines were administered with a confidence of success which only encreased our disappointment. The children grew daily worse, and I was absolutely without hopes of their recovery. The youngest soon appeared almost devoid of animation, and scarcely an inhabitant of this world. In this distressing moment, I was told that Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges had performed many cures in cases equally desperate—I immediately purchased a box, and gave each of them a dose, which in a few hours produced the most desirable effects; the eldest voided a great number of very large worms, and the second thousands of small ones, many of them not a quarter of an inch long—in the youngest they seemed to be consumed, and had the appearance of skins and of slimy matter. I repeated the dose agreeable to the paper of directions, and they all speedily recovered a good state of health which they still enjoy, tho' five months have nearly elapsed since they were on the borders of the grave, and the death of the whole appeared to be inevitable.

Sworn before me this 26th day of September, 1799. J. SMITH.

LETTER

From Mr. John J. Abercromby, Soap and Candle Manufacturer, No. 28, Bridge Street, Baltimore.

TO THE PROPRIETOR OF

Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges.

SIR, October 22, 1799.

I think it my duty to inform you that I have experienced the happiest effects from your Lozenges, having been much afflicted for four years past, with various complaints caused by worms, particularly a constant pain in my stomach and bowels, frequent and severe head ache, with a general lassitude and weakness, during which time I had the best medical advice that could be obtained from the most skilful physicians I could hear of, both American and European, without any alleviation of my disorder.

I should, too probably, have continued without relief, but for your Worm Destroying Lozenges, which brought from me an astonishing quantity of small white worms, about the size of a coarse thread, and in a short time, I found myself perfectly free from all my former complaints, and have enjoyed a good state of health for five months past.

I have constantly recommended your medicine, and shall as long as I live, having, from, my own experience reason to believe it to be an invaluable and unparalell'd remedy. Should any person wish for further information, I will with pleasure satisfy their enquiries on this subject. JOHN J. ABERCROMBY.

SIR, July 10, 1799.

I had been a long time afflicted with a violent and gnawing pain in my stomach, a dull, heavy, continual head ache, with a frequent swimming in my head, accompanied with dimness of sight and sometimes partial blindness, and was rendered incapable of attending my business, thro' loss of strength; sometimes could scarcely eat a morsel for two or three days; when my appetite would suddenly become astonishingly voracious. I firmly believed myself to be in a consumption, which must soon put a period to my life, when happily hearing of several cures performed by Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges in complaints which could not be accounted for, I took two doses, which expelled an incredible number of small sharp pointed worms: in short, I now enjoy as perfect health and strength, as ever I did in my life, and I believe my cure to be entirely effected by means of your medicine.

My brother witnessing its surprizing efficacy was induced to take a dose though in tolerable health, which occasioned him likewise to void a great quantity of worms of the same kind, and thereby probably prevented his experiencing those dreadful disorders with which I was afflicted.

A sincere desire that others in similar circumstances may receive the same benefit, is the reason of my sending you this account.

Yours, very respectfully,
AQUILA GOLDING.

Hartford Road, 2 miles from Baltimore.

OBSERVE.

Those who wish to avail themselves of the benefits proposed by the above remedy, should be particularly careful as they value their money and their health, to guard against the numerous impositions daily attempted on the public, by applying to Mr. Wm. Y. Birch, Stationer, No. 17, South Second Street, who is appointed the only vender in Philadelphia.—Likewise observe that none can be depended on as being genuine, unless the signature of Lee & Co. is pasted on the outside of each.

Purchasers by the dozen or grose will receive a handsome allowance by application to Lee and Co. Market street, Baltimore.

TERMS

Of Richard Folwell, in Philadelphia,

FOR SUBSCRIBING TO THE

JOURNALS OF CONGRESS,

From the commencement

Of the American War, in 1774, to the present time,

INCLUDING

The Reports of Heads of Departments, of Committees, and other Official and Private Papers of that Body, now first permitted to be made public.

TERMS.

THE work will be printed on a fine paper, and a new neat type, in large octavo.

Each volume will contain above 500 pages, neatly bound and lettered.

Uniformity in size, paper, and binding, will be observed throughout the work; so that, while the subscribers become possessed of a valuable record, an ornament may be added to their libraries.

The price to subscribers will be 2 dolls. 75 cts. per volume, in boards, and 3 dolls. whole bound, but, as the publisher does not intend to print manmore than the number subscribed for, a considerable rise on the price may be expected to non-subscribers.

Each volume will contain about one third less of letter-press than the original edition; but, as the publisher is not yet enabled to determine the extent of the Private Journals, which he may be allowed to make public, he cannot ascertain the number of volumes which will comprise the work.

☞ Payments to be made on delivery of each volume.

Subscribers will have it at their option, either to subscribe for the whole of the Journals, up to the present time, or to those only of the Old Congress, prior to the organization of the Federal Government.

IN all countries, the proceedings in the commencement of their governments, are lost in darkness and obscurity, owing to a carelessness, in the succeeding generation, to preserve the public records, and the attention of the nation, in those rude ages, being called off from their domestic concerns, to engage in wars and conquest. Of what infinite value would the laws of Alfred be, had they been transmitted to our days? Time, that destroys every thing, enhances the value of well authenticated public records, and renders them almost inestimable. It is hoped, that Americans will, therefore, chearfully contribute their assistance in transmitting to posterity the labours of their ancestors—founders of the Columbian nation.

 The work will certainly be advanced with expedition and promptitude. The following will show the support it has already acquired:

"Philadelphia, June 15, 1798.

"To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States.

"The MEMORIAL of the Subscribers, Citizens, &c. of Philadelphia,

"Respectfully sheweth,

"That having, in our respective avocations, frequent occasions to recur to the Journals of Congress, we experience inconvenience by the scarcity of them: That we understand that Richard Folwell, printer, of Philadelphia, has had it in contemplation to print that public record; and that he hath obtained partial countenance from many individuals; but that he has delayed prosecuting the work, in expectation of encouragement from government, that may adequately indemnify him. We, therefore, respectfully solicit, as the publication is necessary to be disseminated among public bodies, that Congress will, in their wisdom render him such additional encouragement, to that which he has obtained from private individuals, as to enable him to proceed with the work, so that your Memorialists may be enabled to purchase copies of that record for themselves.
